

Policies & Procedures

Accessibility and Accommodation Policy

We welcome people who are characterized by diversity, including disabilities. For questions about accessibility or to request accommodation(s), please email: treasurer.fl@dyslexiaida.org Requests should be made before August 30th, 2024, which is at least four weeks prior to the beginning of the IDA-FL 2024 Annual Conference.

Badges/Posted Names on Webinars

For security reasons, IDA-FL requires attendees to wear badges at all times during the conference.

Continuing Education Credit

Continuing Education credit will be offered at this event. IDA-FL will verify all attendance for Continuing Education sessions. Participants are expected to sign-in on designated sign-in sheets. Attendance for the duration of each session is expected. Attendance Certificates will be distributed at the end of each session following completion of post-test. Participants who do not satisfy the requirements of completion will be notified by email.

Complaints

The International Dyslexia Association – Florida Branch (IDA-FL) is committed to ensuring that any person using services provided by IDA-FL has the right to lodge a complaint and to have their concerns addressed in ways that ensure access and equity, fairness, accountability, and transparency. IDA-FL is dedicated to seeking and receiving feedback and complaints about our services, systems, practices, procedures, and complaint handling. IDA will protect the identity of people making complaints where this is practical and appropriate. Questions, concerns, and complaints should be directed via email to: Info.FL@dyslexiaida.org

Consent to Photograph and Record

Registration and attendance or participation at the IDA-FL Webinar and Book Study Series and its affiliated meetings and events constitutes an agreement by the registrant for IDA-FL and its affiliates to use and distribute (both now and in the future) the registrant or attendee's image or voice in photographs, videotapes, electronic reproductions, and audiotapes of such events and activities. It is agreed that any photographs, video-recordings, electronic reproductions, or audiotapes that participants take include ONLY other participants who have given the participant with a camera or recording device permission to be included in that participant's photograph, video, or audio recording, while not including anyone else in the background. IDA-FL recordings of the webinars and book study sessions will be posted on the IDA-FL website.

Policies & Procedures

Endorsement Disclaimer

The International Dyslexia Association Florida Branch (IDA-FL) is pleased to present a forum for information to benefit its constituents. It is IDA-FL's policy to not recommend or endorse any specific program, product, institution, company, or instructional material, noting there are a number of such that present the critical components of instructions as defined by IDA's Knowledge and Practice Standards for Teachers of Reading. Any program, product, institution, company, or instructional material carrying the IDA Accredited seal meets the IDA Standards. Advertisements or products in this guide, or any other conference-related material, do not necessarily reflect the views of IDA-FL or IDA.

Non-Discrimination Policy

The International Dyslexia Association Florida Branch (IDA-FL) does not and shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status, in any of its activities or operations.

Registration

Registration for the IDA-FL Webinar does not include any pre-conference symposia, school visits, or other ticketed events.

Solicitation

IDA-FL does not permit solicitation of any kind during the IDA-FL event except by the paid sponsors as exhibitors within the event. Solicitation by any business or person other than exhibitors is strictly prohibited. Violations will be handled by dismissing the solicitor from the event.
